SNAPSHOT OF BELFAST

From unique street art to panoramic city views, Belfast is a photographer's heaven. Local Instagrammer @penmanslens takes us on a photo tour of the city.

1 Titanic Belfast

The majestic Titanic Belfast building that presides over the River Lagan is one of the most Instagrammed buildings in Ireland. Its metallic, angular exterior, sweeping slipways and reflective pools of water surrounding the structure provide many an opportunity.

2 Belfast City Hall

Belfast City Hall's classical Renaissance design and tastefully lit panelling (which changes colour to reflect holidays, celebrations and awareness days), have made this a must on any photographic tour of the city. Venture inside to enjoy a free tour of the equally inspiring interior.

3 Umbrellas on Commercial Court

Belfast's answer to Portugal's Umbrella Sky Project can be found just off Commercial Court, facing the Duke of York pub, and you'll find spectacular street art on many of the walls of the surrounding streets so it's worthwhile taking your own photo tour around the Cathedral Quarter.

4 Harland and Wolff Cranes

A photography guide to the city would not be complete without Belfast's famous yellow cranes, Samson and Goliath, which dominate the skyline and are a symbol of the city. You can snap them up close or in the background of a wider city view.

5 HMS Caroline

A moody sky can capture a stunning shot of World War One survivor HMS Caroline, which you'll find at the Alexandra Dock in Titanic Quarter. You can also climb aboard and learn about life of the crew 100 years ago through a range of exciting interactive exhibits.

6 St George's Market

If you're into food photography, then the charming Victorian St George's Market should be your first stop! Open every Friday, Saturday & Sunday, go and soak up the bustling atmosphere while sampling some delicious local food and browsing the stalls.

7 The Big Fish

One of Belfast's most famous pieces of public art, the Big Fish, has a lot of photo potential! Get close, because the outer 'scales' are made up of tiles depicting the history and spirit of Belfast. Also, as legend would have it, anyone who kisses the 'Salmon of Knowledge' will gain wisdom!

8 The Albert Clock Fountains

Belfast's Albert Clock is often referred to as our very own Leaning Tower of Pisa, but it is in fact the fountains beneath it that create a great opportunity to play around with shutter speed for some stunning water photography.

9 Queen's University Lanyon Building

Designed by architect Charles Lanyon, Queen's University's gothic Lanyon Building is well worth a visit. Not an inch of this architecturally magnificent building would be out of place on the set of Harry Potter, making it a must for keen photographers.

10 Belfast's Public Art

Belfast has over 150 pieces of imaginative public art scattered across the city, but a few picture worthy pieces to check out include the 'Spirit of Belfast' in Cornmarket, 'Beacon of Hope' on Oxford St and 'Rise' at the Donegall Rd junction of the M1.

11 Belfast Cathedral

An interesting mix of old and new, the foundation stone of the Cathedral was laid in 1899 and the building itself, Romanesque in style, continued to grow over the years with the 40 metre stainless steel Spire of Hope added in 2007. You can get a great shot with a colourful twilight sky.

12 Cave Hill

Just 5 miles from the city centre, this scenic stretch feels a world away from the bustle of city life. Begin your adventure at the majestic Belfast Castle, before climbing your way through forested paths to McArt's Fort for panoramic views across the city.

CITY AREAS

Exploring a city can be tricky if you don't know your way around, or even what to look out for. Get a flavour of Belfast with this taster to help navigate your way around the city's areas and quarters.

CITY CENTRE

Home to the iconic Belfast City Hall, St George's Market and the main shopping district. You'll be spoilt for choice with the abundance of cool cafés, great pubs, trendy bars and an amazing restaurant scene. Start off in the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre (opposite City Hall) to pick up information, book tours and find out everything to make the most of your visit.

LINEN QUARTER

Belfast was once nicknamed "Linenopolis" as it was the world leader in the production of linen in the 19th Century. Just south of City Hall, you can enjoy the architecture of the old linen mills which house a mix of offices, chic bars and renowned restaurants. This is a great part of town to enjoy dinner and drinks before an entertaining show at the Grand Opera House.

CATHEDRAL QUARTER

Packed full of fascinating architecture, buzzing beer gardens, trendy warehouse restaurants, cobblestoned streets, and colourful street art, this area of town is absolutely buzzing at night. It contrasts the old with the new, with St. Anne's Square, home to the Metropolitan Arts Centre (MAC) and a piazza of welcoming eateries, alongside some of the oldest streets in Belfast.

TITANIC QUARTER

Steeped in memories of a bygone era, the Titanic Quarter is now a fun and energetic urban waterfront development. Visit or take a tour of the many historic and state-of-the-art Titanic visitor attractions, be wowed by science in W5, explore the 100 year old history of HMS Caroline or catch a show, concert or Ice Hockey game at the SSE Arena.

QUEEN'S QUARTER

The area around Queen's University is a treasure trove of eclectic shops, boutiques, cafés, bars and art galleries. Visit the collections of the Ulster Museum, stroll around Botanic Gardens or enjoy great live music or comedy at the Empire Music Hall. The neighbouring Lisburn Road offers designer shopping, cafés, artisan delis, salons and wine bars.

GAELTACHT QUARTER

The centre for Irish language, music and culture is in the west of the city. An Cultúrlann showcases cultural Irish Gaelic traditions and contains a restaurant, gift shop, theatre and gallery. Explore the stunning Clonard Monastery or enjoy the 3 mile Divis Summit Trail, a specifically designed loop walk on Divis Mountain with spectacular views over Belfast.

EAST SIDE

EastSide was once the beating heart of the city's industrial past with thousands of people employed in linen mills, rope factories, engineering works and shipyards. EastSide is now thriving once again but this time as a hub of culture and creativity. Make the EastSide Visitor Centre your first stop, with information on key attractions in east Belfast.

THE SHANKILL

Straddling North and West Belfast, the Shankill is home to a wide collection of painted murals depicting the social and political history of the area. Places of interest include the Peace Wall, the Old Shankill Graveyard, dating back to the 14th century, the Shankill Memorial Park and the ancient Bullaun Stone. The Spectrum Centre, a major landmark in the area, hosts a range of events and exhibitions.

CELEBRATE ST PATRICK

Come to Belfast for a fantastic St Patrick's Day as the city welcomes you with an array of colour and music. The day begins with a vibrant carnival parade through the city streets, followed by a free concert on Tuesday 17 March.

The celebrations will start with a vibrant carnival parade focussing on the theme of the environment. It will fill the city centre with colour and music. Wonder at the eye-catching floats, performers and magnificent costumes. Come along and see St Patrick, Pipe Bands, dancers and more on their colourful journey through the heart of the city. The carnival leaves from Belfast City Hall at 12.30pm and will travel along Chichester

Street and Victoria Street, into High Street and Donegall Street before finishing at Writers Square.

After the parade, enjoy a free open-air concert at Custom House Square. Running from 1.30pm-4pm, the line-up will feature quality local traditional music and dance, along with special guest appearances, you won't be able to stop your hands clapping and your feet tapping! Entry to the concert will be on a first-come-first-served basis and terms and conditions apply.

There's no need to leave your pooch behind as Belfast has lots of dog friendly pubs, cafés, walks, parks and accommodation. Here's a round-up of the city's dog friendly places.

DOG FRIENDLY BELFAST

PUBS AND CAFÉS

Enjoy a drink with your doggy in these popular Belfast bars and coffee shops, many with outdoor seating.

Sunflower Public House

Expect no gimmicks, just good drinks and great live music with everything from traditional sessions to gypsy swing. Water bowls and treats are available for four-legged friends and sharing pictures of your dog in the pub is highly encouraged.

SEE MAP (C3)

Dirty Onion

Housed in one of Belfast's oldest buildings, you can sit indoors by the fire and enjoy trad music, or make the most of the large heated beer garden. The pub's line-up of events includes regular doggy get-togethers, including Pooch Socials and Hot Dawg BBQs.

SEE MAP (D3)

Hickson's Point

This 1900s-style public house beside Titanic Belfast holds on to the historic feel of the shipyard. Now a dog-friendly venue, you can enjoy a pint, nibbles and music with your furry friend before taking a walk along the Maritime Mile.

SEE MAP (E2)

Pug Uglys

This quirky Irish venue is loved for its tasty pub grub, live sports, quiz nights, music and comedy. Dogs are welcome inside the pub and water bowls are available in the outdoor seating area.

SEE MAP (C5)

Santeria

A dog friendly lively cocktail bar and coffee shop with outdoor seating, reasonably priced drinks and rhythmic funk and soul music.

SEE MAP (C4)

Henrys

This dog friendly bar is a popular venue in the historic Joy's Entry. Call in midweek for hearty traditional food or come for live sports, whiskey tasting and music at the weekend.

SEE MAP (D3)

The Jailhouse

Located in a building dating back over 100 years, with great pub food, local drinks and live music. Dogs are welcome and there's heated outdoor seating in the quaint surroundings of Joy's Entry.

SEE MAP (D3)

Lamppost Café

A Narnia-themed coffee shop in EastSide. Bring your pooch and enjoy breakfast, lunch or sweet treats in this quaint venue, then head to the nearby CS Lewis Square for walkies.

HOTELS

There's no need for your pooch to stay home alone. Belfast has a range of pet friendly accommodation providers designed to suit all tastes and budgets.

Bullitt Hotel

Dog Dens come with a comfy dog bed and treats for your pooch, as well as a king sized bed for owners. Make sure to read the pooch policy before booking. Bullitt's downstairs café and bar is dog friendly, too.

SEE MAP D3

Malmaison Hotel

Mal love all their guests including canine ones, and well behaved dogs over 1 year old are welcome to share their owner's room for a charge of £10 per night. The hotel must be notified during the booking process.

OUTDOOR ADVENTURES

From chasing sticks to meeting locals, your dog will love exploring Belfast's parks, gardens and trails. Just remember to keep them on a lead, and pick up dog waste and put it in the bin.

Botanic Gardens

Dogs are welcome at the Botanic Gardens, but must be kept on a lead. There are loads of gorgeous flowers and plants to enjoy here, and it's a fabulous destination for a day out with your best furry friend. Inside the Victorian Palm House you can even find birds of paradise along with tropical plants.

Divis and Black Mountain

A striking visual boundary of the city, the Belfast Hills provide a tranquil contrast to the hustle and bustle of urban life below. Just minutes from the city centre, the 4.2 mile Ridge Trail offers fantastic views over the famous landmarks of Belfast. Dogs must be kept under control.

Stormont Estate

A public park with beautiful gardens, walking and fitness trails and a children's play park. Dog owners can access the enclosed 'Bullfield' where dogs can be let off the leash while owners relax at the seated picnic tables.

Sir Thomas and Lady Dixon Park

Sir Thomas and Lady Dixon Park in south Belfast is one of the city's most popular parks. With more than 128 acres of rolling meadows, woodland and gardens it contains a number of walks and trails popular with dogs and owners alike.

Cave Hill Country Park

Cave Hill offers incredible views across Belfast from vantage points on the hillside. Access the park from Belfast Castle or Belfast Zoo car parks, then take a hike to the top. Dogs should be kept on a lead but they'll love exploring the wide open space.

TRAVELS & TOURS

MARITIME MILE

SINCLAIR SEAMEN'S CHURCH

Built by Charles Lanyon in 1857–58 to meet the spiritual needs of visiting sailors, this part church, part maritime museum has a pulpit shaped like a ship's prow, a brass ship's wheel and binnacle (used as a baptismal font) salvaged from a WWI wreck and the ship's bell from HMS Hood.

BELFAST HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS

This stunning building dates back to 1847, and you can visit an exhibition in the Heritage Room which celebrates 400 years of Belfast's maritime history, detailing Belfast's emergence as a major port and the city's subsequent growth and development as an industrial hub.

CLARENDON DOCK & CITY QUAYS

The dry docks where Belfast's shipbuilding industry was born date back to 1800–1826. Both docks were used to work on ships' hulls and the workshop was designed for working on the rigging of sailing ships. The area has now been transformed into the City Quays development, home to a mix of commercial offices, shops, cafes, restaurants as well as the AC Hotel by Marriott Belfast.

THE BIG FISH

The beautiful blue scales on the Salmon of Knowledge (affectionately known as The Big Fish) are made up of ceramic tiles depicting scenes from the city's history. Legend has it that if you kiss the fish you'll gain all of its wisdom!

LAGAN WEIR

A wide, modern foot and cycle bridge connecting the city centre with Titanic Quarter. Beautifully illuminated in the evening, take a seat and enjoy the views of the city from the River Lagan.

GLASS OF THRONES

You'll find 3 of the 6 Game of Thrones stained glass windows in Titanic Quarter, located at the Odyssey Point, SS Nomadic and on the Titanic Slipways. Created for the final season of the show, each one represents a different house or legacy.

THE BELFAST BUOYS

The three buoys are estimated to be around 80 years old, and would have been used by mariners to find a safe channel to and from port. Recently restored to their original colours, they have been installed as a permanent display at Abercorn Basin.

SS NOMADIC

The last remaining White Star Line vessel, SS Nomadic, has been restored to her original glory and is back home in the historic Hamilton Dock, near Titanic Belfast. Come on board and experience over 100 years of authentic maritime and social history.

The Maritime Mile begins on the city side of the river, linking Belfast's historic Sailortown across to Titanic Quarter. Take a stroll to explore this historic area and discover the rich history and tradition of the city's shipbuilding heritage.

TITANIC BELFAST

One of the world's leading visitor attractions is housed in an iconic six-floor building. With nine interpretive and interactive galleries that explore the sights, sounds, smells and stories of Titanic, as well as the city and people which made her, Titanic Belfast is an unmissable experience.

TITANIC & OLYMPIC SLIPWAYS

Behind Titanic Belfast you'll find the historic slipways where these famous ships were built and launched over a hundred years ago. Containing many original features, a Memorial Garden illustrates the proportion of Titanic's victims and survivors from each of the passenger classes and crew. The outline of the sister ships illuminate at night and are the perfect space to reflect.

TITANIC HOTEL BELFAST

The original red brick building is a truly authentic part of Titanic's story. Harland and Wolff had two main drawing offices within the building, where naval architects, marine engineers and draftsmen were responsible for the design of the ships. This historic building has been transformed into the Titanic Hotel, preserving its place in Belfast's maritime heritage.

THE GREAT LIGHT

This former lighthouse optic is a unique heritage object with significance to Belfast's economic industrial maritime past. Originally serving both Mew and Tory Island lighthouses, the optic is the largest of its kind ever constructed and dates back to 1887. It is lit all year round and has amazing views over Belfast Harbour and Lough.

HMS CAROLINE

Visitors can explore, through a mixture of historic restoration, state-of-the-art special effects and hands-on interactive exhibits, the importance of the Battle of Jutland and discover what life was like at sea for the crew who served on board.

TITANIC DOCK & PUMP-HOUSE

Discover the story behind Belfast's maritime magic by taking a tour at the site of the Thompson Dry-Dock and Pump-House. See the ship's physical footprint in history, descend 44 feet to the bottom of the dock where Titanic last sat on dry ground and learn about Belfast's shipbuilding legacy in the visitor centre.

Shopping in Belfast is a dream come true for fashionistas, savvy shoppers and foodies alike, with a huge variety of high street favourites, independent retailers, speciality emporiums, exclusive boutiques and traditional markets.

It's in the grandeur of our gardens...

The jewel in the crown is perhaps the beautifully restored 400-year old Antrim Castle Gardens and Clotworthy House, set in a beautiful riverside location close to Antrim town centre. The Gardens have been transformed into a unique living museum and must-see attraction that has been awarded the 2019 Tourism NI, Authentic NI Experience of the Year award including prestigious Green Flag and Green Heritage status. Few historic gardens in Northern Ireland offer such evolutionary garden designs and characteristics with layer upon layer of design features and planting added over the centuries. It's 17th-century Anglo Dutch style canals, ponds and avenues provide a unique walkway into the past.

Antrim Castle Gardens has a programme of events running throughout the year and the gardens themselves are open to the public all year round.

There are many more wonderful gardens waiting to be explored throughout Antrim and Newtownabbey such as the Walled Garden at Greenmount, Ballyrobert Cottage Gardens, Holly House Garden in Crumlin. These hidden gems are waiting to be discovered where you might even pick up some ideas for your own garden! To finish the day, visit Coleman's Garden Centre, Templepatrick to shop for those garden essentials and enjoy some well-earned refreshments!

ROAD TRIP

You'll find a feast of fantastic attractions to visit within an hour's drive from Belfast. Here are our top tips of great ways to enjoy the countryside and coast outside of the city.

Hillsborough Castle

From grand family home to charming royal residence, Hillsborough Castle has welcomed the world and witnessed pivotal chapters in politics. Tour includes guided access to all the State Rooms that make up this elegant Georgian home. Also explore 100 acres of beautiful gardens to complete a relaxing day out for the whole family.

hrp.org.uk/hillsborough-castle

Antrim Castle Gardens

The 400 year old 60 acre gardens are a complex living museum containing over four centuries of culture and heritage. Within the heart of the gardens is a unique visitor experience, Clotworthy House. Visit the Garden Heritage Exhibition to read about the history of the gardens or the Oriel Gallery art exhibitions.

antrimandnewtownabbey.gov.uk/visitor

Giants Causeway

A UNESCO World Heritage site, this magnificent, mysterious geological formation on the coast of Co. Antrim is NI's most visited attraction. Stop at the Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge, suspended almost 100ft above sea level, crossing the bridge is a thrilling experience and brave explorers will be rewarded with stunning views.

nationaltrust.org.uk/giants-causeway

The Argory

This atmospheric Irish gentry house was built in the 1820s and is surrounded by a wooded riverside estate. Take a tour of this neo-classical masterpiece and outside enjoy the sweeping vistas, superb spring flowers, scenic walks and fascinating courtyard displays.

nationaltrust.org.uk/the-argory

Castle Ward

A unique 18th-century mansion, famed for its mixture of architectural styles. Inside the 820 acre walled demesne you will find an exotic sunken garden and paths that wind their way through woodland onto the shores of the Lough. The historic farmyard is the location of Winterfell from Game of Thrones.

nationaltrust.org.uk/castle-ward

Mount Stewart

An inspiring and unusual garden reflecting a rich tapestry of design and artistry. The formal areas exude a strong Mediterranean feel and resemble an Italian villa landscape; the wooded areas support a range of plants from all corners of the world. Tours available of the house and gardens.

nationaltrust.org.uk/mountstewart

Rowallane Garden

This informal plantsman's garden reflects the beautiful natural landscape of the surrounding area. There are spectacular displays of shrubs, including a large collection of rhododendron species and several areas managed as wildflower meadows.

nationaltrust.org.uk/rowallane

Hill of The O'Neill & Ranfurly House

Explore the site that once was the powerbase of Gaelic Ulster and headquarters of the famous O'Neill Chieftains for over 300 years and, after the Flight of the Earls, the proposed capitol of the Plantation of Ulster by Arthur Chichester. Take a tour to learn how Hill of The O'Neill was one of the most important historical sites in the history of Ireland.

SPRING IN LISBURN & CASTLEREAGH

Put a spring in your step with a visit to Lisburn Castlereagh, renowned for its award winning attractions, shopping and fantastic food.

Explore Lisburn City Centre or take a trip to one of the historic villages while the beautiful Georgian architecture is complimented by floral displays.

Where better to visit in spring than Wallace Park in Lisburn? This sprawling park features play areas, tennis courts, a duck pond and some wonderful scenery or experience the start of the brewing process by visiting Ireland's oldest independent brewery in the 19th Century courtyard of Hilden House, also home to the Tap Room Restaurant.

Plan a relaxed visit to the picturesque villages of Hillsborough and Moira, with their mix of boutique shops and gastro pubs and cafés offering superb local produce. Take time to explore the beautiful parkland of Moira Demesne and stop for a coffee at one of the tempting cafés or learn how to distil your own gin at The Still House. The Georgian village of Hillsborough is also home to the historic Courthouse and the stunning Hillsborough Castle & Gardens, the official residence of the Royal Family in Northern Ireland, which has one of the largest Rhododendron plants in Europe!

Whether you are a seasoned foodie or want a quick bite, discover the true taste of Ulster in our vibrant restaurants, cafés and farmers markets featuring produce from some of the area's award winning growers and producers. Memorable shopping opportunities await you at Bow Street Mall, Sprucefield and Forestside Shopping Centres and Lisburn Square. With a mix of intimate boutiques and high street names, Lisburn & Castlereagh caters for all your shopping needs.

What's more, Lisburn Castlereagh features some of the best events in the country such as Balmoral Show, The Mayor's Carnival Parade and a whole host of niche events throughout the year. Whether you're fascinated by the arts and literature, excited by engineering or just need some family fun – Lisburn Castlereagh has it all!

Getting About

Belfast is compact and bijou, so getting around the city is easy on foot, by bike or by taxi. However, if you want to wander a little further afield then we've got a network of transport options which will get you to your desired destination.

TO/FROM AIRPORTS

George Best Belfast City Airport is located 3 miles from the city centre. Airport Express 600 bus service runs from the airport terminal to the city centre every 20 minutes at peak times.

Belfast International Airport is a 30 minute drive from Belfast. The Airbus Express 300 operates between the airport and Europa Bus Centre in the city every 15 minutes at peak times.

JUST EAT BELFAST BIKES

Belfast Bikes is a simple, fun and inexpensive way to get around with 300 bikes and 30 docking stations positioned across the city centre. For just £6 you can get a three-day pass. The first 30 minutes of each trip is then free of charge, with 50p charges for each additional 30 minutes. To register, simply go online at belfastbikes.co.uk, download the Nextbike app or call 034 3357 1551
