STAY SAFE

WELCOMING YOU TO BELFAST

Visit Belfast and our tourism and hospitality partners have been working hard to ensure that we're ready to welcome you back; and we've adapted our services to give you the confidence to return to the city safely.

Partnership is at the heart of everything we do and Belfast is ready to offer the warmest of welcomes and incredible experiences we're renowned for in a responsible, safe and sensitive way. Our partner businesses are COVID prepared in every aspect of their visitor experience.

Our city guide provides all the information you need to discover everything that Belfast has to offer, from the city centre right through to its eclectic quarters and the greater region beyond, each with something special to uncover and enjoy. From history to art to relaxing green spaces to great food, friendly faces and everything in between, uncover the heritage behind the city that built Titanic and enjoy serene coastal paths, charming villages and stunning Royal Palace gardens in the regions, just a short drive away.

Look out for the UK tourism industry's 'We are Good to Go' charter that ensures our partner businesses are COVID prepared in every aspect of their visitor experience.

Coronavirus (COVID-19)

Please adhere to the social distancing guidelines. The use of face coverings is now mandatory in certain indoor settings across Northern Ireland. This includes shops, shopping centres, public and private transport services, taxis, airplanes, public transport stations and airports, banks and some government offices.

To check latest information on Coronavirus guidelines for Northern Ireland, visit: nidirect.gov.uk/campaigns/coronavirus-covid-19

Many providers have pre-booking systems and new regulations in place to keep you safe. Please be sure to check individual websites to avoid disappointment, or contact the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre where one of our travel advisors will be happy to help

CITY AREAS

Exploring a city can be tricky if you don't know your way around, or even what to look out for. Get a flavour of Belfast with this taster to help navigate your way around the city's areas and quarters.

CITY CENTRE

Home to the iconic Belfast City Hall, St George's Market and the main shopping district. You'll be spoilt for choice with the abundance of cool cafés, great pubs, trendy bars and an amazing restaurant scene. Start off in the Visit Belfast Welcome Centre (opposite City Hall) to pick up information, book tours and find out everything to make the most of your visit.

CATHEDRAL QUARTER

Packed full of fascinating architecture, buzzing beer gardens, trendy warehouse restaurants, cobblestoned streets, and colourful street art, this area of town contrasts the old with the new, with St. Anne's Square, home to the Metropolitan Arts Centre (MAC) and a piazza of welcoming eateries, alongside some of the oldest streets in Belfast.

LINEN QUARTER

Belfast was once nicknamed "Linenopolis" as it was the world leader in the production of linen in the 19th Century. Just south of City Hall, you can enjoy the architecture of the old linen mills which house a mix of offices, chic bars and renowned restaurants. This is a great part of town to enjoy dinner and drinks.

TITANIC QUARTER

Steeped in memories of a bygone era, the Titanic Quarter is now a fun and energetic urban waterfront development. Visit or take a tour of the many historic and state-of-the-art Titanic visitor attractions, or simply stroll around the Maritime Mile to learn more about the city's shipbuilding heritage.

QUEEN'S QUARTER

The area around Queen's University is a treasure trove of eclectic shops, boutiques, cafés, bars and art galleries. Visit the collections of the Ulster Museum, stroll around Botanic Gardens. The neighbouring Lisburn Road offers designer shopping, cafés, artisan delis, salons and wine bars.

GAELTACHT QUARTER

The centre for Irish language, music and culture is in the west of the city. An Cultúrlann showcases cultural Irish Gaelic traditions and contains a restaurant, gift shop, theatre and gallery. Explore the stunning Clonard Monastery or enjoy the 3 mile Divis Summit Trail, a specifically designed loop walk on Divis Mountain with spectacular views over Belfast.

EAST SIDE

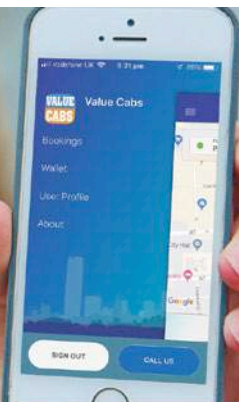

EastSide was once the beating heart of the city's industrial past with thousands of people employed in linen mills, rope factories, engineering works and shipyards. EastSide is now thriving once again but this time as a hub of culture and creativity. Make the EastSide Visitor Centre your first stop, with information on key attractions in east Belfast.

THE SHANKILL

Straddling North and West Belfast, the Shankill is home to a wide collection of painted murals depicting the social and political history of the area. Places of interest include the Peace Wall, the Old Shankill Graveyard, dating back to the 14th century, the Shankill Memorial Park and the ancient Bullaun Stone. The Spectrum Centre, a major landmark in the area, hosts a range of events and exhibitions.

bullitthotel.com

Cutters Wharf

What better place to enjoy the sun than a lazy day down by the river? This scenic spot sits on the banks of the River Lagan and always has a buzzing atmosphere. It's the perfect space for relaxing and enjoying delicious food, cocktails and barbecues throughout the summer months.

cutterswharf.co.uk

The Perch Rooftop Bar

Travel up 5 floors in an old service elevator to discover The Perch, with its large centre bar surrounded by original window features, brick clad walls and adorned with birdcages and artwork. Sip on cocktails and sangria in the height of summer with blankets on hand if the evening turns cool.

theperchbelfast.com

The National

The National has created an epic new heated beer garden to chill out in! With full coverage over a huge heated space with two outdoor bars, why would you go anywhere else for your post lockdown nights out! It's time to get the cocktails flowing and good times rolling! Open 7 days a week, 12pm-late.

Kelly's Cellars

Built in 1720, Kelly's Cellars is one of Belfast's oldest traditional Irish pubs. Though not strictly a beer garden, the area in front of Kelly's Cellars transforms in summer with picnic benches, beer barrels and bar stools to perch on where you can enjoy live traditional music in the "garden sessions".

facebook.com/kellys.cellars

The Jailhouse

The Jailhouse offers a fantastic range of traditional food, local drinks and entertainment alongside the heritage of Joys Entry. Among the historical buildings in the entry, there's a cosy outdoor seating area that is often decked out for different seasons. No booking required.

thejailhousebelfast.com

The Sunflower

This historic pub has changed over the years to a modern, colourful, hip venue with amazing wood-fired pizzas served out in the south facing Beer Garden. None of the beers are mainstream brands, so enjoy sampling some great local craft beers, ales and ciders.

sunflowerbelfast.com

Granny Annies

The award-winning beer garden at Granny Annies can accommodate up to 80 guests and is open throughout the year. This popular bar and kitchen offers tasty pub food, sports on big screens and an array of cocktails, beers and wine. Bookings are available for food, not required for drinks.

MARITIME MILE

SINCLAIR SEAMEN'S CHURCH

Built by Charles Lanyon in 1857–58 to meet the spiritual needs of visiting sailors, this part church, part maritime museum has a pulpit shaped like a ship's prow, a brass ship's wheel and binnacle (used as a baptismal font) salvaged from a WWI wreck and the ship's bell from HMS Hood.

BELFAST HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS

This stunning building dates back to 1847, and you can visit an exhibition in the Heritage Room which celebrates 400 years of Belfast's maritime history, detailing Belfast's emergence as a major port and the city's subsequent growth and development as an industrial hub.

CLARENDON DOCK & CITY QUAYS

The dry docks where Belfast's shipbuilding industry was born date back to 1800–1826. Both docks were used to work on ships' hulls and the workshop was designed for working on the rigging of sailing ships. The area has now been transformed into the City Quays development, home to a mix of commercial offices, shops, cafes, restaurants as well as the AC Hotel by Marriott Belfast.

THE BIG FISH

The beautiful blue scales on the Salmon of Knowledge (affectionately known as The Big Fish) are made up of ceramic tiles depicting scenes from the city's history. Legend has it that if you kiss the fish you'll gain all of its wisdom!

LAGAN WEIR

A wide, modern foot and cycle bridge connecting the city centre with Titanic Quarter. Beautifully illuminated in the evening, take a seat and enjoy the views of the city from the River Lagan.

GLASS OF THRONES

You'll find 3 of the 6 Game of Thrones stained glass windows in Titanic Quarter, located at the Odyssey Point, SS Nomadic and on the Titanic Slipways. Created for the final season of the show, each one represents a different house or legacy.

THE BELFAST BUOYS

The three buoys are estimated to be around 80 years old, and would have been used by mariners to find a safe channel to and from port. Recently restored to their original colours, they have been installed as a permanent display at Abercorn Basin.

SS NOMADIC

The last remaining White Star Line vessel, SS Nomadic, has been restored to her original glory and is back home in the historic Hamilton Dock, near Titanic Belfast. Come on board and experience over 100 years of authentic maritime and social history.

TITANIC BELFAST

One of the world's leading visitor attractions is housed in an iconic six-floor building. With nine interpretive and interactive galleries that explore the sights, sounds, smells and stories of Titanic, as well as the city and people which made her, Titanic Belfast is an unmissable experience.

TITANIC & OLYMPIC SLIPWAYS

Behind Titanic Belfast you'll find the historic slipways

The Maritime Mile begins on the city side of the river, linking Belfast's historic Sailortown across to Titanic Quarter. Take a stroll to explore this historic area and discover the rich history and tradition of the city's shipbuilding heritage.

where these famous ships were built and launched over a hundred years ago. Containing many original features, a Memorial Garden illustrates the proportion of Titanic's victims and survivors from each of the passenger classes and crew. The outline of the sister ships illuminate at night and are the perfect space to reflect.

TITANIC HOTEL BELFAST

The original red brick building is a truly authentic part of Titanic's story. Harland and Wolff had two main drawing offices within the building, where naval architects, marine engineers and draftsmen were responsible for the design of the ships. This historic building has been transformed into the Titanic Hotel, preserving its place in Belfast's maritime heritage.

THE GREAT LIGHT

This former lighthouse optic is a unique heritage object with significance to Belfast's economic industrial maritime past. Originally serving both Mew and Tory Island lighthouses, the optic is the largest of its kind ever constructed and dates back to 1887. It is lit all year round and has amazing views over Belfast Harbour and Lough.

TITANIC DOCK & PUMP-HOUSE

Discover the story behind Belfast's maritime magic by taking a tour at the site of the Thompson Dry-Dock and Pump-House. See the ship's physical footprint in history, descend 44 feet to the bottom

THE MARITIME MILE TREASURE TRAIL

For little explorers and young Titanoraks, to adults who never grew up. The Maritime Mile Treasure Trail is an exciting outdoor experience that combines maritime-twisting clues and fascinating facts for anyone with a sense of adventure. Pick up or download a guide and using the map, make you way around each of the 18 stops. maritime-mile.com of the dock where Titanic last sat on dry ground and learn about Belfast's shipbuilding legacy in the visitor centre.

HICKSON'S POINT

Make a stop to 'rest your wee legs' while out enjoying the Maritime Mile. Offering an authentic 1900's public house setting, serving up perfect pints and classic Clangers with traditional music, heritage décor and a beer garden! Located on the plaza outside Titanic Belfast, Hickson's Point is open daily and dog-friendly!

URBAN ADVENTURE

Sure, you can visit Belfast and lounge in luxurious accommodation and pamper yourself in a spa. But wouldn't it be better to get out and about for some high-octane laughs? If you're looking for something a bit different... an adventure, a thrilling twist on the average city break; we have it by the bucket-load!

HISTORY & HERITAGE

Over four hundred years have passed since the first settlers made Belfast their home: historic buildings, museums and visitor centres will let you discover the city's rich history and heritage.

Belfast City Hall

Designed by Alfred Brumwell Thomas in the Baroque Revival style and constructed in Portland stone, Belfast City Hall first opened its doors in August 1906. The grounds contain a wealth of memorials to the history, people and events associated with the city including the Cenotaph, built in memory of all those who died in the First World War and the Titanic Memorial Gardens which name all 1,512 victims of the disaster.

Crumlin Road Gaol

Built between 1843 and 1845, the gaol was designed by the renowned architect Sir Charles Lanyon. The black basalt rock prison was modelled on London's Pentonville Prison. Visitors can take a self-guided tour of this nineteenth century Grade 'A' listed building and experience life behind bars.

Clifton House

Established as Belfast's Poor House in 1774, where thousands of people sought sanctuary within its walls right up until 1882. The Belfast Charitable Society and its home in Clifton House, has survived rebellions and revolutions, while looking after the welfare of the people of the city.

Linenhall Library

Located opposite Belfast City Hall is the city's oldest library (1788) which houses one of the most renowned collections of Irish material in the world. Browse the collections, visit the gift shop or relax in the coffee shop.

St Anne's Cathedral

Romanesque in style with exquisite mosaics, carvings and stained glass, you can explore this stunning building to learn about its history and the people who helped shape this sacred place.

Belfast Castle

One of the city's most famous landmarks, the castle was built in the 1860s and is located at the base of Cave Hill in north Belfast. The estate contains landscaped gardens and mature mixed woodland offering superb views of the city from a variety of vantage points.

Queen's University

The UK's ninth oldest university contains a distinguished heritage and history. Its main building was also designed by Sir Charles Lanyon, and opened in 1849. Take a stroll around the open campus or enjoy a self-guided campus tour.

James Connolly Visitor Centre

Áras Uí Chonghaile tells the story of Connolly, exploring his role as a pioneer of the early trade union movement, and his travels throughout Britain and America. Learn of his key role in the Easter Rising, his subsequent court-martial, death sentence and execution.

URBAN ART

Belfast has become a place where street artists from across the world gather to produce their work. Spend just a few minutes in the city centre and you'll notice the walls - there is street art to be explored everywhere. This generation of street artists are forming a vibrant and new narrative for the city.

The charming and historic Cathedral Quarter has the highest concentration of street art in Belfast. Some of the most iconic pieces include 'Blurry Eyed' on Talbot Street, 'Belfast Romances' on Victoria Street, 'The Chef' on High Street, 'Forzan' on Gresham Street, 'Pandora's Jar' on Donegall Street and 'The Duel of Belfast, Dance By Candlelight' on Hill Street.

Belfast's answer to Portugal's Umbrella Sky Project can be found just off Commercial Court, facing the Duke of York Pub, but this hidden entry is much more than a few umbrellas in the sky. Stand beneath these vibrant yellow brollies and look around and you will see caricatures of some of Belfast's most famous faces.

You can delve into this colourful world with the Google Map Street Art Guide, which is a great way of enjoying these wonderful art pieces at your own pace, or take the Belfast Street Art Walking Tour to gain an entertaining insider's view to the art, the artists, the process, and the political and cultural history of the area.

LGBT+ BELFAST

Belfast is a buzzing and diverse city offering a range of colourful events and vibrant nightlife. Home to the largest lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender festival in Ireland, the city has a thriving LGBT+ community and gay scene.

NIGHTLIFE

Belfast's best gay bars and clubs* are located in the city's Smithfield and Union Quarter area, north of the city centre on the edge of the Cathedral Quarter.

Union Street Bar 8-14 Union Street

Situated in a 19th century shoe factory, Union Street Bar is one of the city's most stylish bars with a cool yet comfy vibe. Upstairs, the Green Room Cocktail Lounge is particularly worth a visit, and the adjoining Shoe Factory provides wacky entertainment, from bingo and karaoke to quizzes and cabaret.

BELFAST CITY & REGION

Reasons to visit don't end at our city limits. One of the great things about Belfast is that within a short drive you can discover a completely different world filled with lush valleys, a stunning coastline, country parks, magnificent estates, wonderful wildlife and historic attractions. Take a breather and discover some of the other fantastic things to see and do, all just a few minutes' drive outside the capital.

Ards & North Down

Explore and Experience Ards and North Down. Embrace natural landscapes and seascapes as you journey the 115 miles of scenic coastline winding your way along the edge of Belfast Lough, on to the Ards Peninsula and Strangford Lough.

Explore water's edge beauty spots and historic heritage sites, be inspired by our creative makers, savour our award-winning local food and drink, and make unforgettable memories at our top-class attractions.

Ards and North Down is the ideal location to escape, relax and have fun.

10 GREAT INSTAGRAMMABLE LOCATIONS

Here are some of the most beautiful sights in Ards and North Down, they need no filter, and you are guaranteed to be snap happy.

1 Scrabo Tower, Newtownards

As one of Northern Ireland's most well-known landmarks, the majestic Scrabo Tower can be seen from afar and is a local icon. The 19th century lookout tower is 135 feet (41m) tall and stands on Scrabo Hill, where you can enjoy vast views across Strangford Lough.

2 Ballycopeland Windmill, Millisle

Ballycopeland Windmill is the only remaining windmill in Northern Ireland with the original Reef mechanism still existing. It was built in the late 18th or early 19th century and was worked until the First World War when it fell into disrepair. The windmill is currently undergoing regeneration work, with investment to construct a visitor centre with coffee shop and refurbishment of the existing miller's cottage and kilnman's house.

3 Eisenhower Pier and Bangor Marina

North of Bangor Marina by Bangor Lifeboat Station, the pier has a number of mosaics representing the history of the town and one which depicts the borough's crucial role in the Second World War. From here, you can dander round to the seafront promenade which hugs the marina and forms part of the North Down Coastal Path. Stroll past Pickie Funpark, enjoy the lovely seaside vibes and capture beautiful coastal shots.

4 Grey Abbey Ruins

A great photo opportunity, the Cistercian abbey was founded in 1193 by Affreca, wife of John de Courcy, the Anglo-Norman invader of East Ulster. Grey Abbey is located in a picturesque village with beautiful antique and coffee shops, you're sure to be won over by its charm.

5 North Down Coastal Path

The photo opportunities are endless along one of the finest shoreline walks in Ireland. Take in the beautiful surroundings and contrasting shoreline, from rocky outlets to salt marshes and mudflats to sandy beaches.

6 Mount Stewart, Ards Peninsula

Wow, you will be spoilt for choice at magical Mount Stewart - find out why Mount Stewart has been voted as one of the Top Ten Gardens in the world. Capture the beautifully landscaped and informal grounds that surround the picturesque lake walk, recently extended walking trails, and impressive neoclassical family home. (Pre-booking is essential)

7 Nendrum Monastic Site, Comber

Thought to be the best example of a pre-Norman monastic site in Northern Ireland, you'll want to add this scenic location to your camera roll. The monastic site consists of three round dry stone walled enclosures, one within the other, situated on the shores of Strangford Lough. Another great opportunity to capture fantastic images.

8 Sketrick Castle, Killinichy

Sketrick Castle, reached by a causeway on the west coast of Strangford Lough, take your pics at the ruins of the castle located on Sketrick Island. This large tower house was built in the mid-15th century and has a rich history to be discovered.

9 Ulster Folk Museum, Cultra

Promising fantastic shots as you stroll around the grounds of the Ulster Folk Museum. Encounter costumed locals demonstrating traditional crafts in cottages, farm dwellings, schools, and shops as you enjoy a visit to this living history museum. Set in the rolling hills of Cultra and featuring a bustling town, filled with authentic period buildings, rich in traditions from over 100 years ago. (Pre-booking is essential)

10 Donaghadee Harbour and Lighthouse

This well-photographed famous Northern Ireland landmark welcomes you to take your creative capture! Donaghadee's iconic lighthouse stands guard on the harbour keeping ships right in times of trouble with its beam and foghorn. The Donaghadee Lighthouse has the distinction of being the first Irish lighthouse to be converted to electricity. On a clear day, get that perfect shot of an uninterrupted view across to Scotland.

These are only a selection of the inspiring sights and places to visit in Ards and North Down. To explore more check out visitardsandnorthdown.com & Belfast, you can enjoy the variety of valley landscapes from wet meadows, to mixed beech woodland and parkland. This is the perfect time of the year to connect with nature and enjoy everything that Lagan Valley Regional Park has to offer.

Have your camera at the ready! Only a short 20 Minute walk along the Lagan Tow Path and you will have a superb view of the now abandoned Hilden Mill, home of the Barbour Thread Factory. A recommended spot for photographs of this highly significant building in the history of Lisburn's Linen Industry.

DISCOVER HILLSBOROUGH

Hillsborough Forest Park is set in the picturesque Georgian village of Hillsborough. The park sits a few minutes' drive from Hillsborough Castle and is home to Hillsborough Fort. Hillsborough Forest Park is a popular choice for photographers, bird watchers, fishing enthusiasts and dog walkers alike. The forest covers an area of almost 200 acres providing a variety of walks to suit people of all abilities. Visitors can now enjoy upgraded pathways throughout, stunning lakeside viewpoints with seating, additional picnic benches, extra car-parking facilities, and a state-of-the-art woodland-themed outdoor children's play area. The entire lake area is a forest wildlife sanctuary and is home to a wide variety of birds and animals. Look out for the many species of resident and over-wintering waterfowl, especially swans and several varieties of duck.

VISIT MOIRA

A must see place to visit in Moira is Moira Demesne. With over 40 acres of parkland, Moira Demesne provides a quiet retreat where you can enjoy the walkways, picnic sites and superb children's play park. This park was once one of the foremost botanical gardens back in 17th Century Europe. There are areas dedicated to biodiversity and the Demesne benefits from a range of wildlife species.

It's time to brush the cobwebs from your fishing rods and relax in the beautiful surroundings at Moira Lakes. Book your socially distanced space for all the family at moiralakes.com and enjoy the lakes, picnic areas and nature trail. Try your luck at fishing from the Main Lake or Bait Pond whilst enjoying great coffee, German hot-dogs and a range of take-away food.

HISTORIC MOAT PARK DUNDONALD

Moat Park is an idyllic green oasis, situated in the heart of Dundonald. Moat Park offers walks around the historic Motte as well as providing links so you can explore the many facilities on offer in the village. It's hard not to be impressed when you walk around one of the largest Motte's in Northern Ireland. Close by is the Parish Church of St. Elizabeth which dates back to 1306. The park also has a Wildlife Garden where you can see a variety of plants and wildlife.

OUTDOOR DINING TO ENJOY

With the weather improving and the days getting longer there's nothing more inviting than enjoying delicious food and having a chat in a Beer Garden. You'll be spoilt for choice in Lisburn & Castlereagh but here are just a few to add to your bucket list.

The Speckled Hen Derriaghay

This is County Antrim's oldest pub and has been serving weary travellers and locals alike since 1660. Serving locally-sourced seasonal produce, the meals are freshly prepared by a team of experienced chefs. There is also an on-site nano-brewery, making their very own expertly crafted beers by master brewer, plus their own blends of gins, whiskey and vodka. speckledhenlisburn.com

Gowdy's of Down Royal Lisburn

This is a family friendly Country Pub that prides itself in serving the freshest food, cooked with love and passion. Enjoy your favourite sun spot from the outside seating area. Taste the delicious Gowdy's authentic stone baked pizzas or popular roast dinners.

gowdysofdownroyal.com

The Plough Inn Hillsborough

Situated at the gates of Hillsborough Castle. This gastro pub offers some of the tastiest food served with a welcoming atmosphere. With a BBQ area and roof-top terrace to enjoy, this will definitely not be your only visit. Your four legged friend will also receive a warm welcome with a water bowl and biscuit.

theploughhillsborough.co.uk

The Hillside Hillsborough

The Hillside is a very friendly run pub with some of the greatest food on offer, sourced locally and cooked to order. In the summer, customers can relax with friends or family in the cobble courtyard, enjoying some of the wonderful food and salads on offer. Or simply try the local draft ales as The Hillside is one of the very few bars serving such delights. Your furry friends will also be made welcome.

The Stillhouse Moira

This family owned Distillery & Pub is located in the centre of the beautiful village of Moira. Now famous for the RubyBlue range of speciality spirits produced on site by Stuart & Barbara Hughes.

Enjoy the fantastic food from the Gastro pub menu, or relax over a drink of your choice in the courtyard or beer garden.

The Ivanhoe Hotel Carryduff

The hotel has been offering a warm welcome to travellers on the Saintfield Road since the 1800s and offers a range of dining options. Relax in the beautifully designed outside area with fire pits to enjoy into the evening, serving locally sourced dishes presented in their own contemporary style.

ROAD TRIP

Jump in your car and discover hidden gems, geological wonders of the world, secluded bays and real-life fantasy locations, just a short drive from Belfast.

Causeway Coastal Route

County Antrim's Causeway Coastal Route runs north from Larne, and is the gateway to the Nine Glens of Antrim with Glenariff Forest Park at its heart. On the north coast you'll find the Giants Causeway, one of only two World Heritage Sites in Northern Ireland. Visitors can walk along the basalt columns which are at the edge of the sea, just over 1km from the entrance to the site. Booking essential.

Mourne Mountains

Experience the magic of the Mourne Mountains, where dizzying peaks roll into deep valleys and tranquil forests. Venture to the top of Northern Ireland's highest peak, Slieve Donard, which overlooks the coastal town of Newcastle and the Irish

Sea. You'll walk through breathtaking countryside and forest, and learn about the fauna, wildlife and flora along the way.

St Patrick's Trail

Discover the legacy of St Patrick on this 92 mile driving route that links sites connected to the Irish Patron Saint. The Saint Patrick Centre situated below Patrick's burial site in Downpatrick is an interactive exhibition about his life. Visit Down County Museum, located within the walls of the former county gaol, and discover the past through the story of St Patrick and the human and natural history of the region.

Lough Neagh

Lough Neagh is the largest fresh water lake in the British Isles, said to have been formed by the mythical giant Finn McCool. Visit the Lough Neagh Discovery Centre at Oxford Island, where you'll find tourist information, bird watching facilities, woodland, ponds, wildflower meadows and picnic and play areas.

Rathlin Island

Rathlin Island is Northern Ireland's only inhabited island and is also home to one of the largest seabird colonies. Take the Rathlin Ferry Service to experience amazing wildlife, explore the lighthouse and visit The Rathlin West Light Seabird Centre. In summer, the seabird colony is a real assault on the senses with tens of thousands of birds, including puffins, razorbills, guillemots and kittiwakes, jostling for space on the cliff face.

Mount Stewart

Embark on a road trip to explore the beautiful Strangford Lough and Ards Peninsula. Stop off at Mount Stewart, a stunning estate which has one of the most inspiring and unusual gardens in the National Trust's ownership and ranked as one of the top ten gardens in the world. You can take the ferry from Portaferry to Strangford, which takes both foot and car passengers with sailings daily.

Hillsborough Castle Gardens

From grand family home to charming royal residence, Hillsborough Castle has welcomed the world and witnessed pivotal chapters in politics. A tour includes guided access to all the State Rooms that make up this elegant Georgian home. Also explore 100 acres of beautiful gardens to complete a relaxing day out for the whole family and enjoy brunch, lunch or coffee and treats at the Yellow Door Café.

Castle Ward

From one magnificent house to another, continue your journey to Castle Ward which boasts spectacular views of Strangford Lough. Learn about the heritage of the family who lived there and walk the woodland pathways. Castle Ward is also the location for Winterfell Castle in the HBO hit television show Game of Thrones.

Antrim Castle Gardens

A historical gem, these 400 year old gardens have been preserved for generations to come. Walk into the past as you stroll around this magnificent setting, visiting beautiful features such as the Large Parterre, Her Ladyship's Pleasure Garden and Yew Tree Pond before sampling the many culinary delights in the Garden Coffee Shop.

Rowallane Garden

Come for a walk, explore the garden and take in all the vibrant colours, fresh scents and sounds of a wide range of wildlife. Discover the Walled Garden, the Pleasure Grounds and enjoy a tranquil walk around the famous Rock Garden Wood. This summer there are new spaces for you to explore and the kids will love the new Explore & Play area.

Most gardens, parks, cafés, coast and countryside sites and some houses are now open for you to explore. When planning your visit, we recommend you check current opening times and book in advance.
